

IMPACT holds the dual goals of promoting and working towards creating a world to live in that is sustainable, just, peaceful and assists in the pursuit of happiness, while raising awareness amongst the public about the impact corporations have that limit or prevent us from living in that world. This survey was written to help understand and better serve the people that contribute to IMPACT and benefit from IMPACT. It is also being used to get an understand the passions and capabilities of those who participate in IMPACT and try to come up with ways to harness that energy to help create a more peaceful, sustainable and compassionate world.

Thank you. Your participation in IMPACT is greatly appreciated.

How did you hear about IMPACT?

Do you attend the monthly IMPACT events/meetings? About how often? What inspires you to attend?

If you know about IMPACT and its events but do not attend, what prevents you from attending?

What benefits do you receive by attending IMPACT events?

If you have come to several events, what format appeals to you the most? (One speaker, followed by discussion; a panel of speakers and discussion; a movie and discussion; a topic put out for everyone to discuss; other)

What issues concern you the most?

What issues are you best informed about? What issues would you like to be better informed about?

Where do you get the information on which you base decisions?

What are your passions?

What kind of work or activities are you most skilled at?

Which parts of yourself/(your life) would you most like to improve?

What do you think an ideal world would look like, or how would it function?

How much time might you have in each day (or week, or month) to help create that ideal world?

If you could guarantee that the youth of today (or your children) learned one thing or just a few things, what would it or they be?

Please put your name and contact info here if you would like for us to contact you occasionally to participate in actions we are taking to better the world. These would be tailored to match your passions, interests and/or skills. We fully respect desires for anonymity.
